Lyrics:

We plucked a poem out of a book, scissored it off While the words and let-ters still popped
While the lines and stan-zas curt-sided and blushed

We dried and pressed it be-tween the years be-tween che-rry leaves. That makes no sense Then fol-ded and fold-ed it post-ed in to a hole in a stone-fruit tree It was an old-style
Dark

days went a-woy when you came Dark days home-style poem Mean-ing what Mean-ing blo-ssom as light blo-ssom as hope of - ter win-ter's tun-nel of - ter the na row dark The plan was to re-ig-nite the liv-ing flame if the flame went out Hey pres

days went a - woy when you came Dark days

went a - woy when you came And all the Light of you All the noise of to in Ap-ri-l the poem budd-ed and bloomed and we read it chan-ted it knew it by heart But it blo-ssomed a-gain in Ju-ly then a-gain in De-cem-ber drunk on melt-u Light of you All the noise of Light of you All the noise of

you The whole world blooms The whole world blooms All the light of you ter drugged with the te-pid milk of the win-ter sun What had we done What had we done
you The whole world blooms The whole world blooms All the light of you
you The whole world blooms The whole world blooms All the light of you
you The whole world blooms The whole world blooms All the light of you

All the noise of you What on earth have we done
The trees are learn-ing the lan-guage of plum-blo-ssom The trees have spo-ken Pink che-rry-blo-ssom drifts
All the noise of you What on earth have we done Done
All the noise of you What on earth have we done Done
All the noise of you What on earth have we done
